

Dear Mother

I got your letter & the laundry. On the same day I got twelve post cards from 2 anonymous authors who I strongly suspect to be Charlie & George.

They were addressed to Romeo Baer, Red Baer, Necker Baer, Private Baer, Chump Baer, the Red Flamingo, and a lot of other things. So I sent them a threatening letter from the Red Flamingo which I suspect you may see next time Charlie comes up.

You mention some snow in your letter we have had a lot of it down here but it is starting to ~~disappear~~ leave us again. I wish I could come home & get a little skiing in myself. I have been so busy up here I have only had one chance to use the skates.

We will get our vacation either the 22 or 26 of March I am not really sure as yet.
It seems pretty far away but I'll be home
before you can recover from my last visit

As Ever
